

underdog filmfest 2006

1st underdog filmfest of subversive art and culture -
Vienna, 9th March – 12th March 2006

The underdog filmfest 2006 takes place in Vienna from 9th to 12th March 2006. Films received within the deadline will be shown as part of the festival program in various venues all over Vienna.

The underdog filmfest 2006 is a meeting point of mainstream cinema and subcultural approaches, thus the festival programme will consist of a variety of different genres. All films received at the festival's office before 31st January 2006 will be included in the programme. The festival programmer has the right to exclude films from the program. Films with racist, sexist or homophobic contents will not be included.

The main goal of the festival is to offer a possibility for creative filmmakers to have their works screened in public and although the festival is non-competative it will give the filmmakers the opportunity to meet their audience and their colleagues, to exchange opinions and to get new inspirations and ideas.

A series of events, lectures and workshops will give the opportunity to learn about and discuss a variety of topics like surveillance, copyright issues and much more.

The underdog filmfest 2006 will be held from Thursday 9th March to Sunday 12th March in various cultural and art venues in Vienna. Amongst others the autonomous Ernst Kirchweyer House (EKH) will support the festival by showing the main program in their venue.
